All students are required to apply for AEA limited doctoral internships through the Association of Psychology Postdoctoral and Internship Centers (APPIC) match, unless permission to take an internship at an alternate site is given in the program.

Doctoral internships offer the equivalent of one year of full clinical training and specific standards will vary by site.

Associated Fees

Students are independently responsible for paying required fees related to clinical placements, including subscription fees for a clinical hour tracking system; background check fees; and internship and Match registration fees. Other fees related to individual placement sites, such as Psychology Associate licensure application, supplemental student liability, and parking costs, may also be required.
